

How to reach the Pousada?

From Rio de Janeiro/Niterói

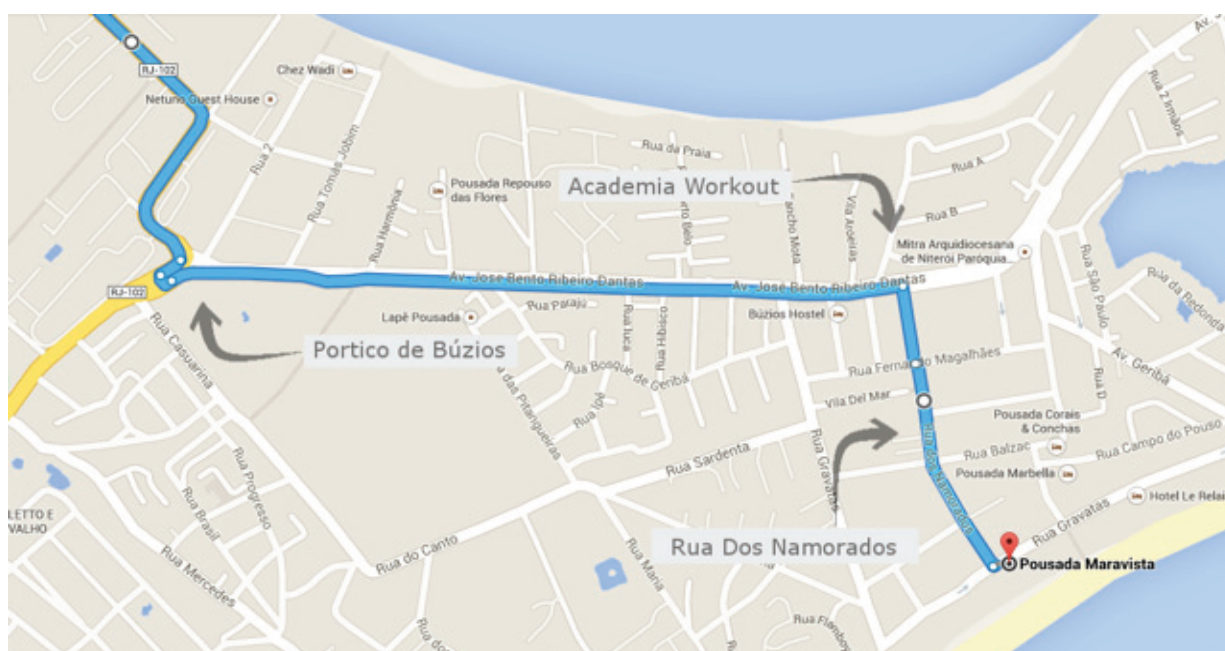

Búzios is situated 180 km from Rio de Janeiro and the drive is of approximately two hours and a half. Please note that there are two toll booths on the way.

From Rio de Janeiro, drive over the Niterói Bridge (Ponte Niterói) and follow the signs towards Região dos Lagos/Búzios/Cabo Frio using the BR 101 Via Lagos highway.

At the end of the Via Lagos, continue towards the Rodovia Amaral Peixoto passing through São Pedro da Aldeia [5 km], in direction Macaé | Búzios | Rio das Ostras (slight left over a bridge).

Drive about 15 km on the Rodovia Amaral Peixoto and turn right onto RJ 102 [Estrada da Fiegueiral], just after a Búzios sign. For the next 15 kilometers, continue until the first crossroad, where you will take a left (shortly after a furniture shop and a Búzios information center). At the roundabout, continue straight and follow the signs Forum de Búzios until the Portico de Búzios.

When entering Búzios at the Portico de Búzios, you will drive past the tourism office and its many flags. From there, drive about 2 more kilometers. Take a right turn on Rua dos Namorados (you will see the Workout Fitness on your left). Then, continue straight and you will arrive directly at the Pousada.
